A series of fires occurred during the week of 25 February at the Seepolizei station at Wolgast. They were set intentionally. The fires broke out on three successive days around 10:00 p.m. The first one was in the clothing store. The second was in the armory, and was controlled only with great difficulty. The third was in the warehouse area. Until 15 March, all Seepolizei vessels at Wolgast had to stand "cleared for action." Since 15 March the Seepolizei have been holding fleet exercises in the Baltic Sea.
